Projects

2016 "Across the Lines," A multidisciplinary collective/collaborative/interactive public art project directed by Bita Fayyazi, executed within a period of two weeks in Niavaran Cultural Center's open grounds, sponsored by the Iranian Urban Art House, L'Oreal Makeup, and SazzBuzz.

2015 "In Cahoots," An Open Studio collective /collaborative /interactive art project, executed within a period of 4 months in Bita Fayyazi's new workshop. As an attempt to turn the new workshop into a space where artworks could be displayed, in collaboration with a number of other artists (visual artists, non-artistically inclined contributors, sound artists, performance artists, and anyone interested in doing art), Tabandehpoor was invited to join in to make artworks with the material available in the workshop. "In Cahoots" was put on view for a selected number of invitees for 10 days.

2014 "Dream Catcher"*, An interactive/collaborative project funded by Prince Clause Foundation in Amsterdam, instigated and created by Bita Fayyazi. Tabandehpoor was one of the contributing artists. "Dream Catcher" was executed within a period of 5 months in collaboration with other artists, non-artistically-inclined participators, thinkers, writers, critics, and anyone from any walks of life who visited the venue.
